

DELAWARE STATE HOUSING AUTHORITY

CLOSING THE PUBLIC HOUSING, RENTAL ASSISTANCE DEMONSTRATION, AND HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER WAITING LIST

The Delaware State Housing Authority (DSHA) will be closing its Waiting List for the Public Housing, Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD), and Housing Choice Voucher Programs as of FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 2022.

Applications will be accepted up to the close of business (4:30 PM) on Friday, March 18, 2022. Any applications received either by email, fax or regular mail after the above date and time will be returned.

The DSHA online application process will also be suspended as of the above date.

Applications already on the DSHA Waiting List will continue to be processed. Please remember to report any change in address, income, or family composition in writing. Changes can be sent to: Delaware State Housing Authority, Waiting List Office, 1289 W. Walker Road, Dover, DE 19904.

As a Public Housing Authority, DSHA receives funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to own and operate public housing in Kent and Sussex counties. Currently, DSHA has more than a sufficient number of applications to fill vacancies in the programs listed above for the near future, and our current wait time is over three (3) years.

DSHA is an Equal Opportunity Housing Provider and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, disability, marital status, familial status, source of income, sexual orientation, and gender identity.
